

Reading response 04: de-tale

In this building, the architect relies on the idea of Detail as an Ornament in order to tell his adventure story. This is a story in which the Lion sets out to discover the lost stone of enchantment, which he later finds out is protected by a fierce gargoyle. The architect's use of these abstracted details allows for the passerby to get a feel from this story.